ABOUT OUR SPECIAL EVENTS!](#)

Prosecutors, Law Enforcement, Victim Advocates, Investigators, Judges, Probation and Parole Officers, Community Stakeholders, and Survivors it is time to reevaluate, post pandemic – what have we learned .. what can we do differently?

Equip yourself with the knowledge, tools, and resources every member of the criminal justice system and community stakeholders need to halt violence in its tracks and protect and support survivors, children and families. Come join seasoned faculty, including veteran prosecutors, law enforcement, scientific experts, health care and mental health specialists, victim-witness professionals and survivors as we share insight that will increase your ability to successfully overcome the complex challenges you face in providing quality, accessible service to survivors of domestic violence and investigating and prosecuting their abusers.
